

What happens to my waste?

Once you send your hard-to-recycle rubbish to TerraCycle®, it goes on a journey to become something new.

Your shipment arrives at one of our material recovery facilities (MRF), where it is checked in, weighed, and sorted.

The sorted items are then recycled into raw materials to make new products.

New products include items like compost bins, pallets, benches, playground equipment, and so much more!

